MGMT 211

Pros:
She is honestly one of the nicest prof's I have ever come across. She keeps her class very interesting and it is obvious that she loves teaching. She also makes a lot of bonus material available (15 points added to your lowest exam grade + 3 bonus points added to your final average = about a 7 point curve). You only get the 3 bonus points if you miss less than two classes. but she really makes it enjoyable (and worth your while) to attend.

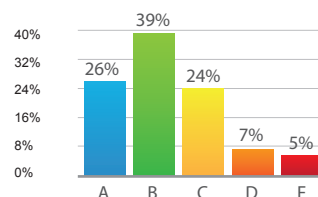

Cons:
The exams are difficult! Due to her teaching only MGMT 211 honors up until spring 09, her grade range is higher than it actually is in one of her non honors courses. Normally the average exam score is around a 70. However, all around this is a difficult course no matter who you take it from.
